9 day Itinerary

Day 1 - Pick up from Chitose Airport and relax as you drive through the snowy mountain passes until your arrival in the worlds number 1 powder Mecca- Niseko. Check in to your accommodation, get settled in. 7pm briefing on the trip.

Day 2 - Lets get those legs warmed up and explore Niseko's infamous powder runs. Your guide's local knowledge ensures you get those secret powder stashes even on the busiest of days. (Stay in Niseko)

SUMMIT SKI SCHOOL & GUIDING

Day 3 - A playground of powder awaits you as we ski Rusutsu's bottomless tree lines. One of Hokkaido's most playful resorts is yours to explore with the secret knowledge of your guide. (Stay in Niseko)

Day 4 - Close to Hokkaido's west coast lies 2 great options for today's adventure. Sharing the same mountain range we get the chance to shred the lesser explored Kokusai or Kiroro Ski resorts and surrounding areas. Once finished skiing it's time to get you straight to the next zone! (Transfer to Furano)

Day 5 - Steep and Deep baby! Furano is perfect for gaining those top to bottom laps through Hokkaido's driest powder snow. Enjoy some beers in a local bar and let's celebrate a great day. (Stay in Furano)

Day 6 - Let's head on an adventure south of Furano and check out Tomamu. This large ski area is boasting everything you need in a resort. With most skiers sticking to the beginner slopes of this vast area, we will have no problem lapping up the endless powder. (Stay in Furano)

Day 7 - Kamui is a real locals mountain and home to some of Japan's most famous freeride skiers and racers. This local hill packs a punch with some epic open powder fields mixed in with some great tree runs. A real hidden gem. (Stay in Furano)

Day 8 - Known as 'Kamui Mintara' or the Playground of the Gods. spend our final day of adventure on Hokkaido's tallest mountain. This place gets caked with the white stuff and if you're lucky enough to have a bluebird powder day you can also see the billowing fumaroles from the top of the ropeway. (Stay in Furano)

Day 9 - Return to Chitose or Niseko after breakfast

Accomodation

You will be staying in hotels close to each ski resort and within walking distance to restaurants/bars/convenience stores. Rooms are shared twin bed rooms. If you are a solo traveller there is the option to upgrade to a single room for an additional charge. Please enquire for more details.

Ski and Snowboard equipment

All mountain/powder skis and snowboards will be needed for this trip. For skis we recommend a minimum of 100 underfoot. As all terrain is lift assisted there will be no need for backcountry touring equipment. If you are riding powder terrain, Avalanche safety equipment will be essential. For more information on equipment rental please contact us for details.

Safety

Weather forecast will be checked regularly from our guides and instructors. Safety predictions based on these will be given each morning at breakfast before heading to the resort. In the case of bad weather conditions there may be the possibility to explore an alternative close by resort or spend 2 days at one of the above mentioned resorts if the weather permits.
